Commission approves resolution requiring display of an address on all residential property areas of Coffee County

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Coffee County Emergency Management Agency [EMA] director James Brown addressed

Coffee County Commissioners Monday morning, April 9, during their regular bi-monthly meeting asking for a resolution requiring the display of an address on all residential property in the unincorporated areas of Coffee County.

"It is the goal of all our first responders to address any emergency request as soon as humanly possible," Brown said. "However, many residences in the unincorporated areas of the county do not display an address at the entrance of their property or on the house itself."

He said this could cause delays in the response time putting at-risk life, limb, and property.

"In order to correct this issue and promote safety and the preservation of life, we are asking you [Coffee County Commission] to approve a resolution requiring the display of an address on all residential property in the unincorporated areas of Coffee County," Brown said.

Brown also said Coffee County EMA encourages all residents to support the resolution. He said all are asked to display a reflective sign with at least 2-½ inch letters at the entrance of their property.

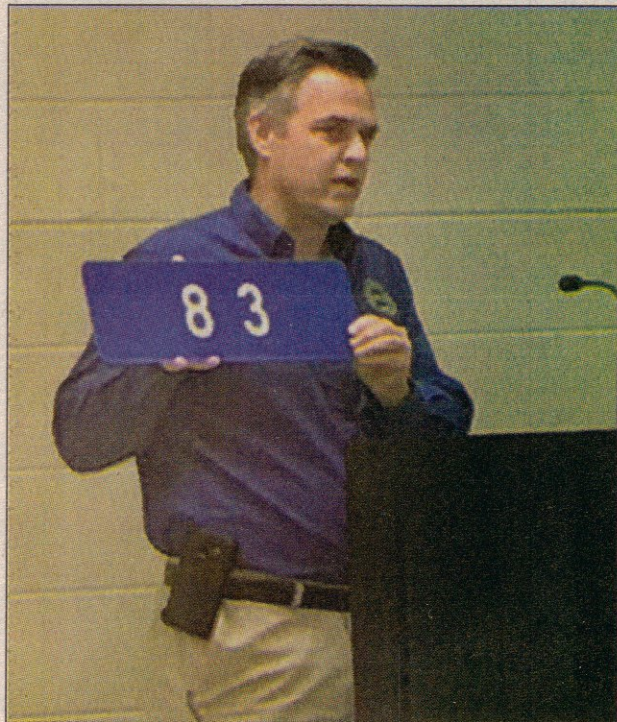

Brown noted this resolution is supported by all the volunteer fire departments within the county, and he said some of those had even agreed to forego their profit on reflective signs they sale and reduce the cost from $25 to $20 for the signs.

"For those residents that don't wish to purchase a sign on their own, the volunteer fire departments of Battens, Goodman, 5-Star, New Brockton and Tri-Communities can make a sign for a fee of only $20," Brown said.

Brown had a sign made by one of the volunteer fire department available for display during Monday's meeting, and he said these signs have 3-inch lettering as opposed to the required 2-½ inch lettering noted in the resolution.

Commissioners voted unanimously to approve the resolution as presented by the Coffee County EMA.

"We thank you for your attention and appreciate your support in this effort to increase the safety of the citizens in Coffee County," Brown said.

Coffee County EMA director James Brown shows off a reflective address sign, which can be purchased from several volunteer fire departments in the county for only $20 to properly display a residential address. This meets requirements of the resolution passed Monday by Coffee County Commissioners.

Parent addresses Coffee County BOE about incident involving his stepchild

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Coffee County Board of Education heard from a concerned parent during the April board meeting held last Thursday, April 5th.

Elijah Moring spoke of an incident that happened Feb. 2nd among students including his stepdaughter. He said at one point during this incident one student allegedly told his stepdaughter that, "I hope you die like your father."

Moring said his stepdaughter's father is deceased, and this was a traumatizing statement to be made to the young girl. He said his stepdaughter was suspended for 3-days for allegedly telling that student that she was going to punch her in the face.

Further, Moring said his stepdaughter asked the Moring said.

He noted his children – the stepdaughter and stepson – are now both being taught via home school.

"I want to give my kids a chance to continue their education in the Coffee County School System but at a different school," Elijah Moring told board members.

He said he feels allowing them to return to the previous school would not be good for them at all. He said he feels things would only be worse for them now since that incident occurred and due to things he said had happened since that time.

During the presentation, Moring revealed that the students were attending Kinston. He said he would like them to have an opportunity to return to the county school system but at New Brockton instead.

Moring said his and his wife's work creates an even larger issue with them trying to home school the children, and he feels they would benefit best by returning to the Coffee County School System. However, he said his request was for that return to be granted for New Brockton.

Elba City Council told Flood Control Pump repaired and back in service

by Ferrin Cox, Publisher

The Elba City Council meeting Monday evening, April 9, and heard Police Chief Freddy Hanchey report that the last half of March saw an upswing in police activity.

Hanchey singled out two deaths investigated by the department. One was classified as a murder and the second was determined to be of natural causes.

Hanchey also noted the new police car should be arriving soon and would be on the road a few days after that.

Assistant City Clerk Pat Boothe reported only one bid was received on the Fire Department specialty truck. She noted the price was slightly higher than originally estimated but was within an acceptable range. Once the order is officially placed, the unit should be delivered within several months.

Boothe said the new fire truck that has been on order for several months will be officially delivered to the City on Wednesday of this week. Local fire officials have examined the truck and reported that everything seems to be in order.

Boothe also reported the flood pump that was reported as out of order in January, has been repaired and is back in service. Rewinding of the motor, etc., cost $16,610.

Council members again discussed the selling of a city-owned property behind Cook Chevrolet. It was discovered just a couple of months ago that it was owned by the city and not part of the Cook Chevrolet property. Cook Chevrolet had offered to buy the lot but no decision was made Monday evening.

Keith Grantham was named to a term on the property abatement board. A couple of other board slots were not discussed, pending council members

During the regular bi-monthly meeting held Monday, April 9, Coffee County Commission were reminded of upcoming "Don't Drop It on Alabama" campaign, which is being led by the Coffee County Solid Waste Department for the county.

Emily Smith, an environmental services employee for the county, is leading this year's effort for Coffee County, and she said litter is a huge problem in the county.

day," Smith said.

She said Coffee County is teaming up with Alabama PALS [People Against a Littered State] to promote a Spring clean-up during the week of April 21-28 this year.

"We are trying to get the message across to citizens to not litter," Smith said. "We encourage to keep trash in your car and throw it away when to get somewhere with a proper disposing method. There are trash cans at home or at the stores we stop at each day, etc."

"Dear IRS, I am writing to cancel my subscription. Please remove my name from your mailing list." — Charles M. Schulz

President Trump and attorney-client privilege — is it complete or conditional? Many of us have apparently watched entirely too many television shows and think we are legal experts. Now we find out that all that attorney-client privilege stuff is just "sometimes" true. Trump's attorney, Michael Cohen, gave us armchair legal experts a reason to take at least one more law course before hanging out our shingle. The FBI visited Cohen's office, hotel room, and maybe some other places Monday and walked away with all sorts of records — probably dealing with Trump, politics and/or a certain young female who claims to have had an affair with Trump some time back. Now the president has something else to be mad about and maybe even miss a few hours of sleep — especially if he knows the sort of stuff on those records can be damaging to him or his political career.

The 4th Amendment guarantees "the right of protection against unreasonable search and seizure". Thus the question becomes, "what is unreasonable?" Some talking heads have been explaining that the attorney-client privilege only deals with items the attorney is representing a client about and only then if the two of them are the only people who heard their discussions. If others are involved, or different subjects involved, etc., then these experts assure us that it is not privileged information. Time will tell.

Hopefully President Trump will not resort to firing federal officials involved with all the investigations into his doings. We are sure the temptations are there and will get stronger. But such an action on his part will surely hit like a ton of bricks and prompt more investigations and lawyer talk.

Now, if all this progresses to an aggressive effort to impeach the president . . . we ain't seen nothing yet! Washington will be virtually shut down as the fight explodes and lawmakers and bureaucrat's alike choose sides. Trump will not ride off quietly into the sunset. He will fight harder than he has ever fought, and it will take a dedicated bulldog type to survive his attacks long enough to even get an impeachment vote of any kind in Congress. His core supporters will curse those trying to "take over" the government while the anti Trump crowd will cheer on the effort. In the middle will be those of us who don't know the finer details of the issues and/or want our government to function for the benefit of the citizens and not for the president and others in the Washington crowd.

Zion Chapel Sr. Beta and elementary SGA funds "Stop the Bleed" project

Written by Zion Chapel student Savannah Parker

In response to the numerous school shootings that have occurred nationwide, as well as, a rise in student anxiety, Coffee County School's safety director Kevin Killingsworth presented the idea of instating the "Stop the Bleed" program to Zion Chapel School's head nurse Sharon Stinson.

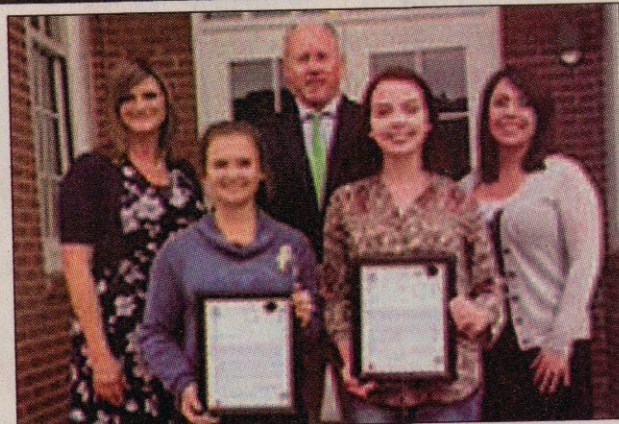

The program is scarce in Alabama with Zion Chapel being one of few in the state to incorporate "Stop the Bleed" — a campaign launched by the White House in 2015 that encourages the training of both school faculty and bystanders in life-saving techniques. It is vital that faculty be trained in the proper use of a tourniquet because of the school's distance from emergency responders as well as the increased chance of saving lives that would be lost because of blood loss.

"Zion Chapel's students are wonderful and wish to aid in their community," Stinson said. "Everybody was so willing and ready to step in."

The project was funded by the Zion Chapel Senior Beta Club and the Elementary Student Government Association. 26 kits were purchased for $50 each and will be distributed throughout the campus. Senior Beta Club sponsor is Kim Braisted and Elementary SGA sponsors are Ginger Vinson and Jessie Grant.

All faculty — administrators, teachers, librarians, lunch room staff — county-wide underwent training in March led by Nurse Stinson, which included a 10-minute "Stop the Bleed" video as well as hands-on training. Zion Chapel also recently conducted an active shooter drill for faculty to heighten the awareness of the sounds and environment during a school shooting.

ZION CHAPEL VAL AND SAL NAMED...Kassidy Hester has been named the 2018 valedictorian and Heather Shoemaker the 2018 salutatorian for Zion Chapel Schools. McLeod thanked Moring for his time, and he said the board would take the matter under advisement and respond appropriately.

As part of the Coffee County Board of Education's current search for a new superintendent for schools, last Thursday's meeting was opened to the public at one point for input regarding the upcoming superintendent selection process; however, not one person was in attendance to speak on the matter.

Citizens also have an opportunity to complete an online survey at www.coffeecountyschools.org [follow the link Superintendent Search Survey to participate]. This survey closes Monday, April 16, at 11 a.m.

Board members approved the 2018-2019 school calendar as proposed by the calendar committee, which met March 21st to create a draft proposal.

Superintendent Terry Weeks noted some important dates from the calendar to include:

- Aug. 2nd will be Pre-K and Kindergarten JumpStart; and Open House from 4-7 p.m.

- Aug. 6th will be the first day of school for students

- Nov. 19-23 will be Thanksgiving holidays

- Dec. 18th will be the day students get out of school for Christmas holidays

- Jan. 7th will be return to school for students after holidays

- March 25-29 will be Spring Break week

- May 23rd will be last day of school for students

Board members unanimously approved the 2018-

2019 calendar as recommended.

The superintendent presented two classified personnel matters for board members to consider and approve.

Keith Hocutt was hired as a bus driver for New Brockton School, and Donna Hussey, custodian at Zion Chapel, was granted leave under the Family Medical Leave Act beginning April 9th and tentatively ending May 31st.

Superintendent Weeks also noted during the meeting that the March Teacher of the Month was Hannah Whitt, a social studies teacher at Zion Chapel, and the March Employee of the Month was Glenda Black, a nurse at New Brockton Elementary School.

McLeod said the next regular meeting is set for Tuesday, May 8th.

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low:
Remember the love
that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick
at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And busy your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me - but let me go

CEC annual meeting in Andalusia draws huge crowd

Great door prizes and quality entertainment brought approximately 4,500 people, including 1,676 registered members, to the 2018 Covington Electric Cooperative

Annual Meeting on April 5 in Andalusia.

Business highlights included the election of two members to the CEC board of trustees, reports on CEC's operations in 2017, and information about member services and community support provided by the cooperative.

Lucy Kilgore, age 100, of Red Level, was the oldest female member present and she received $100. T.J. Booth of Opp and L.C. Brannon of Andalusia tied for oldest male member present with both being 97-years-old. They received $100 each, and Ms. Kilgore received an extra $100 for being the oldest of the winners.

CEC General Manager Ed Short discussed various topics including renewable energy, community involvement, the need for diverse fuel sources for energy production, and he warned members to beware of scam attempts.

Short stated there was no rate increase projected for 2018. He reminded members about ongoing rate studies that indicate there is a need to implement full cost-based rates, which CEC began moving toward in 2009.

Short discussed capital credits stating the board has approved $1.7 million in capital credits to be paid this year based on member patronage to the cooperative. Capital credits are margins or profits credited to cooperative members based on their purchases from the cooperative. These credits are used by the cooperative as working capital for a period of time, and then paid back to the membership as conditions permit.

Short also updated members about the current lawsuit challenging the way capital credits are disbursed to members.

After the business session, attendance prizes were awarded. Three $2,500 bill credits were awarded as the top three major attendance prizes to Jannie Bush of Dozier, Dewanna Henderson of Andalusia and Vanessa Jones of Elba. Sherrie Sanders of Red Level was the winner of $600 cash, Daniel King of Andalusia won $500 cash, and Lillie Mims of Red Level won $400 cash.

Other prize winners were as follows: Five members won $300 cash—Pamela Kervin, Ada Knight, Brooks Baptist Church, Sue Maust and Kim Barber. Five members won $200 cash—Myra Ann Carter, Pine Level Senior Citizens, Willis Nelson, Betty Barefoot and Lois B. Jones. Ten members won $100 cash—Kenneth Northey, Glynn Broom, Grady Williamson, Clyde Northrop III, Betty Jean Daniels, Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, Michael S. Maddox, Frances Jackson, Bobbie B. Dozier and James Kelley. Ten members won $50 cash—Jewell Nowling, Barbara W. Johnson, Paul Finadore, Roxanne Powell, Georgia Stoudemire Germany, Bill McGinty, Harriet P. West, Bradley A. Bryan, Salena Miller and Charlene B. Holland.

COVENANT COMMUNITY CHURCH

FEELING WHOLE

It's pretty obvious that God cares about our spiritual health and emotional health. Yet, I am more and more convinced each day that God also cares deeply about our physical well being. I believe God cares about the things we eat and avoid eating. God wants us to care for our bodies, wanting us to keep them in shape with exercise.

My husband and I recently completed The Whole 30 detox plan. The "No -No's" of The Whole 30 Detox include: sugar (and sugar substitutes), grains, legumes and dairy. The plan encourages you to fast from these in order to find out which of these foods are causing your body harm and how to consume less "bad foods." I was unconvinced about the potential help that fasting would have on my personal well being. After a week or so of struggling with doing without sugar (and high grocery bills), I was finally feeling really great! Sure I lost a few pounds, but the most remarkable changes were my increase of energy and the reduction of my anxiety. I felt more present in my relationships and interactions.

Unfortunately, I have gradually gone back to some of my old ways. I've added back some bread and sugar. I am again feeling the tingle of anxiety creep along my skin. I have felt my energy wane. Most of all, I have again begun seeking joy in food. Through all of my days on Whole 30 I prayed "God, I no longer want to seek joy in food. I want to find joy in You and the people that surround me." God desires for us to find wholeness in our body, mind and soul. When we struggle in one area, all the pieces can begin to fall apart. I need to learn to be more thankful for my body and my health. I want to seek to appreciate my health by honoring my physical self through a healthy lifestyle. We are, after all, "wonderfully made."

Read these good, inspiring words from Psalm 139: PSALM 139:13-16

You are the one who created my innermost parts; you knit me together while I was still in my mother's womb.

I give thanks to you that I was marvelously set apart. Your works are wonderful—I know that very well.

My bones weren't hidden from you when I was being put together in a secret place, when I was being woven together in the deep parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my embryo, and on your scroll every day was written that was being formed for me, before any one of them had yet happened.

Elliott Lipinsky seeking election as state auditor

Elliott Lipinsky has qualified with the Alabama Republican Party as a candidate for Alabama State Auditor.

The primary will take place on June 5, 2018.

Elliott Lipinsky is currently an Assistant District Attorney in Wilcox County, Alabama. He has served as a prosecutor in a variety of areas throughout the State.

Lipinsky began his career in the Fourth Judicial Circuit's District Attorney's Office in Selma, Alabama. He prosecuted various crimes throughout the circuit. He handled traffic cases to murder cases. He was the only prosecutor handling white-collar crimes, and traveled the entire five county circuit.

Lipinsky acted as a Deputy District Attorney in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama. He supervised young attorneys as they transitioned into the office, and acted as the district court supervisor.

Lipinsky recalled the time fondly saying, "It would be hard to pass an opportunity to return to the town where I went to college, and serve the State at the same time."

Currently, Lipinsky is the only assigned District Attorney in Wilcox County, Alabama. He has made an impact in the community by handling high profile public corruption trials, with integrity and ethics.

"I hope to bring the same accountability, with common sense, to elected office in Alabama," he said. "The Alabama voter demands a fresh perspective, and I hope we will find organizations that are committed to those ideals."

Lipinsky is a life-long resident of Alabama and a native of Montgomery, Alabama. He attended Saint James School, the University of Alabama, the Thomas Goode Jones School of Law, and the University of Alabama School of Law. He is married to the former Caroline Handey. She is a pharmacist in Montgomery, and a graduate of Auburn University. She is a life-long resident of Pike Road, Alabama, where they both reside.

Lipinsky has a very active involvement in the River Region. He is the Secretary of the Montgomery County Republican Executive Committee, Secretary/Treasurer of the Oil, Mineral, Natural Gas Section of the Alabama Bar, Secretary/Treasurer of the Young Lawyer Section of the Montgomery County Bar, and is a member of various boards and social clubs.

He hopes that the voters of Alabama support him on June 5, 2018.

Views From The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our little grandson Lawson is now hooked on hot dogs and macaroni and cheese, and every afternoon when he comes over to the house asks for an afternoon snack as soon as he sits down in Granddaddy's recliner. The hot dogs have to be cut up so he can dip them in ketchup, while the mac-n-cheese gets nuked and is always warm and ready. After a long day at school I guess my little man deserves a snack!

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers walloped Daleville 13-3 last week for their second win of the season and all of the sudden the team that was once looking at a winless season is on a roll and talking about making the 2A playoffs. The Tigers exploded for nine runs in their final at-bat in the big win, while Trenton Sanders was dominant on the mound as he tossed a 4-hitter with 12 strikeouts to pick up his second win of the season. There are still some teams left on the schedule that the Tigers have a solid chance of defeating, and if that happens this team that refused to quit could very well make the post-season party.

 The Elba Lady Tigers surprised New Brockton 8-5 last week on the road to claim an area win and have now hung up five wins on their side of ledger at the midway point of the season. The Lady Tigers have a winning combination of speed on the bases and solid hitting, and when they play well on defense they are indeed a worthy opponent to any and all teams on their schedule. It is good to see the Lady Tigers wining games again, and hopefully this year's success will help turn the program back around.

 A look around the area found things busy up in Brantley, where the Bulldogs and Lady Bulldogs piled up the wins. The Bulldogs scored 29 runs in a double-header sweep over 5A Charles Henderson and have made it clear they are a 1A contender, while the Lady Bulldogs outscored four victims 35-0 as they continued to roll along toward what appears to be a fourth state title in the last five years. At the other sites, New Brockton posted a big win over Brantley and may be peaking at just the right time as the baseball playoffs approach, while Kinston continued to play well and is a solid 1A team that no one knows much about, and Zion Chapel continued to get better every time it took the field. Over on the softball field, New Brockton continued to improve as its youngsters got on the job training, while Zion Chapel picked up a key road win over Elba and appears to be ready to put the lock on an area title, and Kinston continued to play hard every time it took the field.

 There are two former Elba Tiger baseball stand-outs playing in the junior college ranks and both are enjoying sold seasons. Clark Logan, a sophomore, is a relief pitcher for the 27-11 Wallace Community College Governors and in six appearances out of the bullpen has allowed only three hits, while recording seven strikeouts. Grant Akridge, a freshman, is an outfielder for the 16-20 Enterprise State Community College Boll Weevils, and has appeared in 30 games with a batting average of .309, with three home runs and 19 rbi's. Another junior college player that has been making a lot of noise is former Zion Chapel standout Ivey Sanders, who is a valuable member of 46-2 Wallace Community College Lady Gov's. The sophomore infielder is batting a cool .444 with four homers and 32 rbi's, and is a key player in the success of the Lady Gov's.

 In closing.... night fishing is back at the Coffee County Lake on Saturdays, and that means that all area anglers can hang around until 10 pm and try their luck at taking home a stringer filled with fish. As the weather warms up the extra hours will come in handy and should help everyone enjoy the lake, even more. The Elba Tigers gained a measure of revenge for an early-season loss and gave their fans plenty to cheer about last week as they broke loose late to bury the Daleville Warhawks 13-3, in Elba.

The Tigers scored two runs in the bottom of the first inning to grab an early 2-1 lead, then added two more runs in the third to erase a Daleville lead as they regained the lead at 4-3. The lead remained one-run until the bottom of the fifth, when the Tigers exploded for nine runs to end the game due to the mercy rule with the score 13-3.

Lady Tigers stun 'Brockton 8-5

The Elba Lady Tigers claimed a key area win last week when they surprised the New Brockton Lady Gamecocks 8-5, at New Brockton.

The Lady Tigers jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning when Sandra Lindsey led off with a triple and scored on an rbi single by Kira Starks, while Starks later scored on a one out single by Mckenlie Jerkins to put Elba on top early.

New Brockton cut the lead to 2-1 in the bottom of the frame and then added a run in the third to pull even at 2-2, and that was how it stood until the fourth, when the Lady Tigers erupted for three runs to stretch their lead to 5-2.

Kayla Seay drew a two-out walk to start the fourth inning fireworks, while Leah Faircloth came in as a pinch runner and promptly stole second and third. Praise Edwards followed with an rbi double to drive in Faircloth, and later crossed the plate on an rbi single by Sandra Lindsey. Lindsey scored after stealing second, third and home, and heading into the bottom of the fourth the Lady Tigers were back in front 5-2.

New Brockton cut the Elba lead to 5-3 in the fifth, but the Lady Tigers refused to lose their lead and added three insurance runs in the top of the seventh inning to extend their lead to 8-3.

A leadoff single by Sandra Lindsey ignited the seventh inning outburst, while Kira Starks reached on a fielder's choice, and after both runners moved up on stolen bases, the Lady Tigers were back in business. McKenzie Hooks roped an rbi single to drive in Lindsey, and Mckenlie Jerkins followed with a two-run double as Elba regained command.

New Brockton took advantage of two Elba errors to cut the lead to 8-5 in the bottom of the seventh, but Kayla Seay flagged down a hard grounder at first and beat the runner to the bag for the third out to seal the Lady Tigers 8-5 win.

Sandra Lindsey had 3 hits, scored 3 runs, stole four bases and had one rbi to lead the Lay Tigers at the plate, while Mckenlie Jerkins added 3 hits and one rbi; A'Maysia Whitfield added 2 hits and one rbi; Praise Edwards added 2 hits, scored one run and had one rbi; Kira Starks added 1 hit, scored two runs and had two rbi's; and, McKenzie Hooks added 1 hit, scored one run and had one rbi.

Lady Tigers outscored by Zion Chapel 11-6

The Elba Lady Tigers fell behind early and never caught back up in an 11-6 homefield loss to the Zion Chapel Lady Rebels.

Elba managed only one baserunner in the opening two innings and trailed 5-0 by the time the Lady Tigers came back to the plate in the bottom of the third.

The Lady Tigers showed signs of life at the plate in the third; however, as Sandra Lindsey reached on an error, Kira Starks reached on a fielder's choice and both runners crossed the plate on a two-run single by Mckenlie Jerkins to cut the deficit to 5-2.

The Lady Tigers rallied again in the fifth and added two runs to their total to pull within 5-4. Back-to-back singles off the bats of Sandra Lindsey and Kira Starks ignited the Elba rally, while McKenzie Hooks and Mckenlie Jerkins both delivered rbi singles as the Lady Tigers cut into the Zion Chapel lead.

The excitement in the Elba dugout didn't last for long; however, as Zion Chapel plated six runs in its final two trips to the plate, and even though the Lady Tigers added two runs in the seventh on a two-run triple by Mone Martin, the Lady Tigers rally fell short in the 11-6 loss.

Sandra Lindsey had 3 hits and scored 3 runs to lead Elba at the plate, while Mone Martin added 2 hits and 2 rbi's, Kira Starks added 1 hit and scored 2 runs, Mckenlie Jerkins added 1 hit, scored 1 run and knocked in 2 runs, McKenzie Hooks added 1 hit and 1 rbi, and A'Maysia Whitfield scored 1 run.

Lexy Rugg was the winning pitcher for the Lady Rebels as they moved to 2-0 in area play.

Bicentennial traveling exhibit will be in Elba in July 4th-25th on tour

"Making Alabama: A Bicentennial Traveling Exhibit" made its debut in Montgomery in March, displaying 200 years of Alabama history and beyond. The exhibit is in the Old Supreme Court Library room of the state Capitol and will be on display through August.

Beginning this month, this and other versions of the exhibit will be on tour for 19 months, traveling to all 67 of Alabama's counties. Four exhibits have been built, and they will travel the state so that all counties will be able to experience this exhibit.

This extensive exhibit by the Alabama Humanities Foundation (AHF) blends artistic collages, interactive computer tablets and an audio medley of song and spoken word to tell the story of Alabama – from becoming a territory to achieving statehood. It also conveys a message of Hope in its presentation about the future.

"Elba is the host community for the exhibit in July. Coffee County is assembling their own historical exhibits and collateral programming and activities to showcase our own history and put our signature on this Bicentennial event," said Sandy Bynum director of the Chamber of Commerce.
